Hon. A.A. Desai, C.J.

Heard Sri Rajendra Singh, learned counsel for the applicant and the learned A.G.A.

The applicant is facing prosecution for the offence punishable under section 147, 148, 149, 307, 302 I.P.C. The applicant and others are farmers. Thirteen persons are implicated with the aid of section 149, I.P.C.

The bail was opposed mainly on the ground that there is likelihood for further act of crime. On going through the substance of the prosecution case, it is revealed that there is a group clash owing to dispute about the encroachment of the public land. It is also revealed that the accused persons have also filed a cross-case against the complainant and nine persons are implicated.

Having regard to the dispute and nature of the incident as occurred, I direct that the applicant Naveen be released on bail in his furnishing a personal bond with twoo sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the A.C.J.M. Roorkee. However, the applicant shall report to the police Station Manglaur (Distt. Haridwar) every alternate day from the date of his release on bail.
